

When You Hurt

by David Wilkerson

God offers a way of escape from pain and healing for those deep, inner hurts through His faithfulness and presence.

Scripture: Psalm 34:18, Psalm 147:3, Isaiah 61:1, Matthew 11:28-30, John 16:33, Romans 8:28, 1 Corinthians 10:13, 2 Corinthians 1:3-4, Philippians 4:6-7, Revelation 21:4

Topics: "God's Faithfulness", "Healing"

Description

David Wilkerson emphasizes that everyone experiences pain and inner struggles that often go unrecognized by others. He reassures that God provides healing and strength, promising a way to bear our burdens and escape temptation. Wilkerson highlights God's unwavering presence, noting that He watches over us, collects our tears, and offers joy in place of mourning. The message encourages believers to rejoice in the Lord and rise above their fears, trusting in God's faithfulness. Ultimately, the sermon affirms that God is not a liar and that healing is possible through Him.

Transcript

In one way or another, we are all hurting. Every person on earth carries his own burden of pain.

When you are deeply hurt, no person on earth can shut down the inner fears and deepest agonies. Not the best of friends can understand the battle you are going through or the wounds inflicted on you.

Is there a balm for a broken heart? Is there healing for those deep, inner hurts? Can the pieces be put back together and the heart be made even stronger? Yes! Absolutely yes! And if not, then God's Word would be a hoax and God himself would be a liar. That cannot be!

God didn't promise you a painless way of life. He promised you "a way of escape." He promised to help you bear your pain. Strength to put you back on your feet when weakness makes you stagger.

Our loving Father said, "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it" (1 Corinthians 10:13).

Your heavenly Father watches over you with an unwavering eye. Every move is monitored. Every tear is bottled. He identifies with your every pain. He feels every hurt. He will never allow you to drown in your tears. He will not permit your hurt to deteriorate your mind. He promises to come, right on time, to wipe away your tears and give you joy for mourning.

You have the ability to make your heart rejoice and be glad in the Lord. God's eye is on you--and he commands us to rise up and shake off all those fears causing doubt.
