

Contrast Between Genesis and Revelation

by D.L. Moody

The sermon contrasts the original creation in Genesis with the final redemption in Revelation, highlighting the hope of a new heaven and a new earth.

Scripture: Genesis 1:1-2, Revelation 19:9, Revelation 20:3, Revelation 20:10, Revelation 21:1-2, Revelation 21:4, Revelation 21:10, Revelation 22:2-3, Revelation 22:5

Topics: "Creation", "Redemption"

Description

D.L. Moody contrasts the beginnings of creation in Genesis with the fulfillment of God's promises in Revelation, illustrating the transformation from the initial state of the world to the ultimate restoration. He highlights key differences such as the creation of the earth and the promise of a new heaven and earth, the presence of night versus eternal light, and the transition from a garden home to a city home for nations. Moody emphasizes the defeat of Satan and the end of sorrow and curses, showcasing the hope of being welcomed back to the tree of life. This sermon serves as a reminder of God's redemptive plan from creation to eternity.
