Description

D.L. Moody emphasizes the urgency for immigrants in Immanuel's land to secure their places on the Gospel ship, which is the only vessel destined for eternal life. He describes the journey from the City of Destruction to Immanuel's Land, highlighting that the passage is free and available today, with Jesus Christ as the captain. The sermon illustrates the essential elements of the voyage, including faith, love, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, assuring that all passengers, saved by grace, will be provided for throughout their journey. Moody invites everyone to join this voyage, emphasizing the ample accommodations and the hope anchored in Christ.
