

Thoughts for the Quiet Hour - June 10

by D.L. Moody

God holds us accountable for our potential and faithfulness, and we must strive to be diligent and productive in our service to Him.

Scripture: Matthew 25:21, Matthew 25:26, Luke 12:48, Romans 12:6-8, 1 Corinthians 4:2, Galatians 6:9, Ephesians 2:10, Colossians 3:23-24, James 1:22, 1 Peter 4:10

Topics: "Faithfulness", "Stewardship"

Description

D.L. Moody emphasizes the importance of being diligent and faithful in our service to God, as illustrated in the parable of the talents. He reminds us that God evaluates us not solely on our current abilities or possessions, but on our potential and the opportunities we have to grow and serve. The contrast between the faithful servant and the slothful servant serves as a call to action for believers to maximize their gifts and responsibilities in the Kingdom of God.

Transcript

Well done, good and faithful servant...Thou wicked and slothful servant. --Matthew 25:21, 26

God holds us responsible not for what we have, but for what we might have; not for what we are, but for what we might be. --Mark Guy Pearse
