

Thoughts for the Quiet Hour - June 16

by D.L. Moody

A personal acquaintance with Christ is a living and growing relationship that can thrive in sunshine and rain, and grow stronger in storms.

Scripture: Psalm 1:3, John 15:5, Philippians 3:10, 2 Timothy 1:12, James 1:2-4

Topics: "Spiritual Growth", "Personal Relationship with Christ"

Description

D.L. Moody emphasizes the importance of a personal relationship with Christ, comparing it to a tree that grows and strengthens through various conditions. He encourages believers to view their experiences, even the challenging ones, as opportunities to deepen their acquaintance with the Lord. Moody reassures troubled hearts that every circumstance can lead to a closer connection with Jesus, fostering spiritual growth and resilience.

Transcript

I know whom I have believed. --2 Timothy 1:12

Personal acquaintance with Christ is a living thing. Like a tree that uses every hour for growth, it thrives in sunshine, it is refreshed by rain--even the storm drives it to fasten its grip more firmly in the earth for its support. So, troubled heart, in all experience, say, "This comes that I may make closer acquaintance with my Lord." --Selected
