

Hymn: Gone to Bloom Above

by D.S. Warner

---

The sermon 'Gone to Bloom Above' offers comfort and hope in times of grief, reminding us that God's hand is at work and our loved ones are in His care.

Scripture: John 14:1

Topics: "Grief And Loss", "Eternal Life"

Description

D.S. Warner preaches about finding comfort and trust in God's plan, even in times of grief and loss, knowing that God's hand is at work in all situations. He emphasizes the assurance that our loved ones are in God's better care and that we will be reunited with them in eternity. Warner encourages surrendering to God's will and finding solace in the promise of eternal life and the love of Jesus.

Transcript

1 A gentle hand unseen by us

Has plucked our tender bud;

By this alone our grief is blest--

It was the hand of God.

Refrain:

O gentle one, we miss thee here,

Sweet form we love so well;

But in our Father's better care,

We know the child is well.

2 In all our hearts He planted deep

This precious little one;

As forth He takes His own, we weep,

But say, "Thy will be done." [Refrain]

3 No care was lavished here in vain

Upon this plant of love;

Though soon removed, 'twill bloom again

In sweeter form above. [Refrain]

4 Would not our grief forever flow

Upon thy silent tomb,

Did not our hearts this comfort know--

We soon to thee shall come. [Refrain]

5 Dear Jesus, Thou hast died for us,

And for our darling, too;

We trust Thee in each providence,

Thy love is ever true. [Refrain]
