Description

D.S. Warner preaches about finding true satisfaction and completeness in God, emphasizing that worldly wealth and honor cannot fulfill the human heart like the presence of God can. He encourages the congregation to seek all their desires and blessings in Christ, the ultimate Giver of peace and contentment. Warner challenges the notion of a life devoid of comfort, asserting that Christ can bring joy even in the desert places of our lives. He uses powerful imagery to illustrate the insatiable thirst of the soul and the boundless love of God that fills every longing.

Transcript

1 All this world, its wealth and honor,

Cannot sate the human breast;

But when filled with God, our Father,

Every want is fully blest.

Refrain:

My soul is satisfied,

My soul is satisfied;

I am complete in Jesus love,

And my soul is satisfied.

2 All my soul can wish forever

I do find in Christ replete;

Every blessing and the Giver

In my peaceful bosom meet. [Refrain]

3 Is thy life bereft of comfort?

And thy heart a cheerless spot?

Say not Christ is in thy desert--

For we can believe it not. [Refrain]

4 Can a bird drink up the ocean,

Thirsting still from shore to shore;

Or the God of all creation

Leave thy heart yet craving more? [Refrain]

5 Would my soul could more encompass

Heaven's glory, willed to me;

Oh, the love of God so precious,

'Tis a deep and shoreless sea. [Refrain]
