

Within the Heart of Me

by Ed Wrather

God's presence is always with us, bringing comfort, peace, and joy to our lives.

Scripture: Psalm 139:7, Matthew 28:20, Romans 8:38, 1 John 4:16

Topics: "Gods Love", "Spiritual Growth"

Description

Ed Wrather emphasizes the intimate presence of God in our lives, highlighting how God walks with us through every step of our journey on earth. He encourages believers to recognize and cherish the gift of God's love that surrounds them, filling their souls with warmth and care. Wrather inspires the congregation to live a life dedicated to holding and sharing this wondrous gift of God's love as they navigate through the unfolding chapters of their lives.

Transcript

Some think He is in the Heavens

Some think He may not be...

But, everything I know of God,

Is held within the heart of me.

Oh, I think not of Him...as only afar

In some splendorous, bright abode;

Because I've felt Him walking with me

As I've traveled this life's road.

I do not question that He is...

For where I am, He is there;

His presence illuminating every space,

Surrounding me in tender care.

His gift of love warms my being...

It surges through my soul,

I live to hold, to share, this wondrous gift,

As my life on earth unfolds.
