Topics: "Gods Presence", "Divine Glory"

Description

E.L. Bevir delves into the mystery and wonder of the secret name of God, highlighting the awe-inspiring nature of encountering God's presence and the transformative power it holds for believers. Through references to Judges 13 and Isaiah 9, the sermon explores the profound significance of knowing and honoring God's name, ultimately pointing to Jesus as the embodiment of God's meekness, grace, and eternal glory. The burnt-offering symbolizes the means through which believers can experience life in God's presence and understand His heart, leading to a life elevated by His worth and eternal blessings.

The Secret Name

"What is thy name . . . that we may do thee honour?" (Judges 13: 17) The word "secret" may well be translated "wonderful" (Isaiah 9: 6), and the expression in the next verse, where it is said that the angel did wonderfully, is in connection with it.

O wonderful! thrice wonderful

Must be the secret Name

Of Him who mounts aloft to God

In the devouring flame.

Say who shall meet that angel's look,

(Judges 13: 6)

So terrible to scan?

In Jesu's face it shall be seen,

The meek and lowly Man!
And who shall see the mighty God,
Yet live before His face?
In the burnt-offering we shall live,
In all its fragrant grace.
Yea, now we live, and live in Him,
And learn the Father's heart,
His worth has brought our souls on high
Our bright eternal part.
Known in the fierce ascending fire,
Excelling praise or fame;
O wonderful! most wonderful
Must be Thy blessèd Name!
