

Will You Fight?

by Eli Brayley

The sermon encourages listeners to enlist in the Lord's army and serve Jesus Christ, promising great rewards and a life of purpose.

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 15:57, Ephesians 6:10, 2 Timothy 2:3, Revelation 12:11, Revelation 19:1

Topics: "Spiritual Warfare", "Holy Spirit"

Description

Eli Brayley passionately calls for strong young individuals to join the Lord's army, emphasizing the need for courage to face the devil's forces head-on. He highlights the tough training, but promises superb wages of life, peace, and a fantastic retirement plan in the end. With the Lord Jesus Christ as the greatest commander and the power of the Holy Spirit as the ultimate weapon, believers are encouraged to wield their swords and defeat demons fearlessly. Despite the dangers that come with the work, the marching song of victory resounds with praises to God for His salvation, glory, honor, and power.

Transcript

I was just wanting to let you know that the Lord's army is recruiting right now, and we need some strong young lads with a tough disfigure and the courage to take on the main brunt of the devil's forces.

I've sent in my recommendations, so you can expect a call to service any time now. Of course, the decision to enlist is absolutely up to you, but I can't encourage you more highly to join. The training is tough, but the wages are superb... life and peace and ultimately in the end there is a fantastic retirement plan... plus the enjoyment of wielding a sword and dealing a death blow to demons on their own festering turf. We have the greatest of commanders, the Lord Jesus Christ, and the greatest of weapons, the power of the Holy Spirit, that no foe either in heaven or on earth can stand up against, for we've seen even the most terrifying of giants fall, and many more will follow.

I can't pretend that the work isn't dangerous, for it will ultimately cost you your life, but at the end of it all our marching song still sings:

"Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and honor and power belongs to our God, for now and forever. Amen!"

So what'll it be?

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/eli-brayley/will-you-fight/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net