Description

This sermon exalts the Lord who sits on His throne, radiating with glory and power, emphasizing His sacrifice for all mankind and His victory over death and darkness. It calls for continuous praise and worship to Jesus Christ, the King of heaven and earth, declaring His worthiness as the Son of God.

Transcript

Behold the Lord, upon His throne, His face is shining like the sun, With eyes blazing bright and faith glowing broad, His voice like mighty water rolls. Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Holy, holy, we stand in awe of You. The first, the last, the living One, Lay down His life for all the world, Behold, He now lives forevermore, And hosts the kings of death and hell.

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Holy, holy, we bow before Your throne. So let our praises ever ring, To Jesus Christ, our glorious King, On heaven and earth, with song as we cry, Worthy is the Son of God. Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Holy, holy, we fall down at Your feet.

We cry, holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Holy, holy, we fall down at Your feet.
