by Gareth Evans

Jesus' humility, servanthood, and obedience to death demonstrate His greatness and show us how to live a life of service and sacrifice.

Scripture: Matthew 20:28, John 13:14, Philippians 2:3-9

Topics: "Christ's Humility", "Divine Exaltation"

Description

Gareth Evans preaches on the humility and obedience of Christ Jesus, who, despite being in the form of God, chose to make Himself of no reputation and took on the form of a servant, ultimately giving His life on the cross. Jesus did not assert His divinity forcefully, was not motivated by worldly ambitions, and fully embraced humanity. As a result of His obedience and sacrifice, God exalted Him above all, declaring that every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, showcasing His supreme greatness.
