

There Might Be Warfare But The Victory Is Coming

by Gary Wilkerson

This sermon focuses on the anticipation of God's judgment and the call to rejoice and sing for joy before the Lord. It emphasizes the idea of putting aside past experiences and current challenges to declare a new song of victory, as the ultimate triumph belongs to the Lord and is on the horizon.

Scripture: Psalm 96:11, Isaiah 42:13, 2 Chronicles 20:15, Exodus 15:2

Topics: "Anticipation of God's Judgment", "New Song of Victory"

Transcript

Levitt talks about the seas and roar, the fields rejoice, and the trees of the forest sing for joy before the Lord, for he comes, for he comes to judge the earth. Judgment, warfare, battles, conflict are going on, and God is saying, no matter what you've experienced in the past, no matter what you're facing right now, or whatever happens in the future, put some words down, the words of a of a new song, a victory song, because that victory is the Lord's and the victory is coming.
