

A Seeing God Always Present

by George Fox

The sermon emphasizes the importance of turning one's mind to God and feeding on the pure Light of God for spiritual nourishment.

Scripture: Psalm 34:8, John 6:35, Philippians 4:7, Colossians 3:2, James 1:5

Topics: "Inner Light", "Spiritual Guidance"

Description

George Fox preaches about the importance of focusing the mind inward towards God, emphasizing the need to feed on the pure Light of God and the living Food that comes from Him. He prays for God's strength and power to be with the listeners, guiding their minds away from worldly distractions and towards an endless being of joy and peace, always present. Fox bids farewell, blessing the congregation with God's wisdom to guide and keep them.

Transcript

WAIT all in that which calls your Mind inward, and turns them to God; and here is the Cross witnessed, that the Mind shall feed upon nothing, but the pure Light of God, and on the living Food, which comes from the living God.

So, the Lord God Almighty be with you all, and keep you all in his Strength and Power to his Glory, over all the World, whose Minds are called out of it. . . .

And the Light of God, that calls your minds out of the Creatures, turns them to God, to an Endless Being, Joy and Peace; here is a seeing God always present. . . . So Fare ye well! and God Almighty bless, guide and keep you all in his Wisdom.
