Transcript

George Fox, wait low in his fear. Dear friends, in the eternal truth of God, whose minds by the light of Jesus Christ are turned towards God, meet often together in the fear of the Lord, and to the light take heed, that with it all your minds may be kept up to God from whence it comes. And in all your meetings wait low in his fear, that ye may come to know the life and power of truth one in another.

And all ye, whom the Lord hath made overseers over his church in your several places, be faithful to the Lord, and watch over the flock of Christ with all diligence. Ye which are strong, watch over the weak, and stir up that which is pure one in another. See that in order all your meetings be kept, and take heed of forward minds, and of running out before your guide, for that leads out into looseness.

And such plead for liberty, and run out in their wills, and bring dishonor to the Lord. And an exalted spirit gets up, and pride, and haughtiness, and high words, and such are they which add to the burden, and do not take it off. Therefore, all wait low in the fear of the Lord, and be not hasty or rash, but see the way, be made clear.

And as the Lord doth move you, so do, and return with speed when ye have done to the place where ye were abiding, and be faithful there. So, farewell in the Lord. Be diligent everyone in your places where the Lord hath set you, for the work of the Lord is great, and God Almighty keep you to be faithful laborers in his work.

From one who is a lover of your souls, and whose care is over the church of God, that it may be kept in order, and that all that are guided by his Spirit may be led into all good order. G. F.
