In It Wait

by George Fox

George Fox encourages listeners to dwell in the Light of God, which guides us towards Jesus Christ and helps us stay on the right course.

Scripture: Psalm 119:105, Proverbs 4:18, John 8:12, Ephesians 5:8, 1 John 1:7
Topics: "Inner Light", "Spiritual Guidance"

Description

George Fox preaches about the importance of dwelling in the Light of Jesus Christ to avoid extremes, passions, and hasty decisions. By staying in the unchanging Light, one can be kept from behaviors that go against it, leading to peace, order, and mercy. This Light guides individuals back to their true course and helps them use their gifts for God's glory.

Transcript

FRIENDS, All ye, whose Minds are turned with the Light towards Jesus Christ, from whence it comes, in it wait, that with it ye may all see Jesus, and all that Condemned, which is Contrary to it; that so by that ye may be kept from all Extremes, Passions, Agonies and Hastiness, Presumption and Desperation. For dwelling in the Light, which doth never change, this keeps your Minds out of all those things before-mentioned, which lead Nature out of its true Course; and with the Light all that is seen and condemned, which his contrary to it.

And that which doth Condemn, keeps you in Peace and Order, and leads to the Door of Mercy, and Nature into its right course, and into the Vertue of that Word, by which the Creatures were made, and with it to use them all to his Glory. . . .

There fore in this Light dwell and wait, from which the true Words did proceed, that with it all those Words may be opened again. . . .
