

Self Judged and Mastery

by George Fox

George Fox emphasizes the importance of self-judgment and unity through God's measure to avoid strife and confusion.

Scripture: John 16:13, Romans 14:13, 1 Corinthians 12:4, Galatians 6:3, 1 John 1:5

Topics: "Spiritual Guidance", "Self Reflection"

Description

George Fox emphasizes the importance of dwelling in the measure of God's Spirit, which brings unity and peace. He warns against boasting above one's measure and encourages self-reflection to allow the Spirit to guide individuals closer to God. Fox urges believers to judge themselves with the Light to avoid condemnation and strive for unity in love. He highlights that moving away from the eternal life into the changeable world leads to strife and confusion.

Transcript

FRIENDS, I do Warn and Exhort you all in the Presence of the Lord God, Dwell in the Measure, which God hath given you of himself, in which is no Strife, but Unity: Therefore every one of you dwell in it. And this I do Warn you of, Boast not your selves above your Measures, but dwell in the Truth it self; that with the Measure of the Living Spirit of the Living God, ye may be guided up to God, in which Spirit ye will all have Unity in the least Measure of it. And so every one of you Judge Self, for it would have the Mastery; which is to be Condemned with the Light, in which is Unity. So, the Eternal God of Light, and Life and Power be with you all, and in you all! And keep from all Strife, and above it, in Love and Unity in every Place.

And Friends, the going from the Life into the Changable, is the Cause of Strife and Confusion.
