

The Sure Way

by George Fox

The sermon emphasizes the importance of walking in the pure Light of God, avoiding backsliding, and waiting upon Him in the fear of God to find the sure way to Him.

Scripture: Psalm 27:14, Proverbs 3:6, John 8:12, Ephesians 4:3, Philippians 2:3, James 1:22

Topics: "Spiritual Growth", "Godly Living"

Description

George Fox preaches about walking in the pure Light of God, which leads out of darkness and into the eternal world. He encourages believers to not just speak about the truth but to live it out fully, warning against backsliding and the dangers of ambition, pride, and presumption. Fox emphasizes the importance of waiting on God's presence and teachings, keeping hearts clean and united in the light and life of God. By dwelling in the Spirit and surrendering to God, believers can experience true unity and glory in God's presence.

Transcript

TO all my Dear Brethren, whom the God of Power hath enlightned with his External Light, and discovered unto you his Way of Truth, and brought you out of the dark ways, where in ye have walked; which dark ways all the World walks in: But where the pure Light of God is witnessed, it guides to himself. The Light is but one, which leads out of Darkness and the dark World, into the World which is without an End.

Therefore all Friends and Brethren in the Eternal Truth of God, walk in it up to God, and be not Sayers (only) nor Backsliders: for the Backslider is a Sayer, and not a Doer, and there ariseth Ambition, Pride and Presumption. But dwell in the pure Light, which God hath made manifest to you in your Understanding, and turn your Minds to him, and walk as Children of the Light. . . . Wait for the Presence of the Great God, and our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; and be not so Childish, as to be tossed with Men's Words without Life. . . . But wait everyone in particular (in the Measure, that God hath given you) upon God, in the Fear of God, then your Hearts will be kept clean; and this is the sure Way. . . . All loving the Light, ye love the one thing, which gathers your Hearts together to the Fountain of Light and Life; and walking in it, ye have Unity with one another. . . .

But waiting all upon God in that which is of God, ye are kept open to receive the Teachings of God . . . and to walk out of your own Ways, and out of your own Thoughts. . . . So, dwelling in the Spirit, it keepeth all your Hearts to God: to whom be all Praise, Honour, and Glory for ever.
