Description

George Müller, in his sermon 'George Müller the Man', emphasizes the extraordinary faith and trust in God that characterized his life, demonstrating that an ordinary man can have a profound impact on the world. He recounts how Müller received over £1,500,000 through prayer alone, without ever soliciting funds, showcasing the power of God in action. Müller's legacy continues today through the George Müller Foundation, which operates on the same principles of faith and trust, receiving donations without appeals. This serves as a testament to the authenticity of God's provision and the inspiration it offers to those who commit their lives to Him. Müller's life parallels many Biblical figures who were used by God in remarkable ways.

Transcript

George Müller was an ordinary man, but his undeniable faith, implicit trust and love for God has the same impact on the world today as when he died in 1898. This continues to be an inspiration and witness to all who commit their lives to God.

One of the many fascinating aspects of George Müller's life is that it illustrates very simply the power of God. There are those who find it difficult to accept the authenticity of much of the scriptures and view many of the remarkable stories with scepticism. George Müller received £1,500,000 in answer to prayer without ever needing to ask for funds. At present day prices, this would be well over £75,000,000. Had this happened two or three thousand years ago the same sceptics would, undoubtedly, have questioned its authenticity. As it happened in the latter part of the nineteenth century with modern records and factual evidence, the facts can be challenged but certainly not disputed.

What is perhaps even more remarkable is that it is the SAME TODAY. The George Müller Foundation makes no appeals, yet through the same trust in God, money is received almost daily for the Homes, for the Elderly work and also for The Scriptural Knowledge Institution, which aids the work of missionaries world-wide.

George Müller was the faithful servant whom God used. This fact has an intriguing parallel with many Biblical characters.
