

My Heavenly Friend

by George Mueller

The Lord Jesus Christ is our true friend, always ready to be with us and help us, and we can experience the joys of heaven by entering into His friendship and promise of return.

Scripture: Psalm 23:4, Proverbs 18:24, Isaiah 41:10, Matthew 28:20, John 14:3, John 15:15, Romans 8:38-39, Hebrews 13:5, 1 Peter 5:7, Revelation 21:4

Topics: "Friendship with Christ", "Comfort in Loneliness"

Description

George Mueller emphasizes the profound truth that Jesus Christ is our true friend, who is always present and supportive in our lives. He encourages believers to recognize this relationship, especially in times of loneliness, pain, and need, reminding us that Jesus is there to comfort and strengthen us. Mueller reflects on his own experiences of loss and solitude, finding solace in the companionship of Christ, who never leaves us. He urges us to cultivate a habitual awareness of Jesus as our friend, who walks with us through all circumstances, and to look forward to the eternal joy of being with Him in heaven. The sermon concludes with the hope of Christ's return, assuring us that our heavenly friendship will last forever.

Transcript

The precious Lord Jesus Christ is our friend. Oh, let us seek to realize this! It is not merely a religious phrase or statement, but truly He is our friend. He is the Brother "born for adversity," the one who "sticks closer than a brother." Who will never leave and never forsake us.

How precious even on earth to have a heavenly friend, for this brings the joys of heaven in a little degree into our hearts now. This is just what our heavenly Father desires regarding His children, that they might be as happy as they are capable of being while here in the body. Have we entered into this, that the One who is "altogether lovely" is ready hour by hour, to be our Friend?

When we cannot sleep at night, say to Christ, "My precious heavenly Friend, wilt Thou give me a little sleep?" When in pain, say, "My precious heavenly Friend, if it may please Thee, wilt Thou take away this pain? But if not, if Thou sees better that it should continue, sustain, help, and strengthen me, my precious heavenly friend!" When we feel lonely and tired, turn to the precious Lord Jesus; He is willing to be our friend in our loneliness. For sixty-two years and five months I had a beloved wife, and now in my ninety-second year I am left alone. But I turn to my precious Lord Jesus as I walk up and down in my room, and say, "My precious Lord Jesus, I am alone, and yet not alone, Thou art with me; Thou art my friend; now Lord, comfort me and strengthen me, give to Thy poor servant everything Thou sees he needs."

Oh, this is a reality, not a fable, that the Lord Jesus Christ is our friend. We should not be satisfied till we are brought to this, that we know the Lord Jesus Christ experientially to be our friend and habitually to be our friend. Just ponder this. Habitually, never leaving, never forsaking us, at all times and under all circumstances ready to prove Himself to be our friend.

He is willing not merely to grant this for a few months, or a year or two, but to the very end of our earthly pilgrimage. David, in Psalm 23 says: "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me." Oh, how precious this is. For this "Lovely One" is coming again, and soon. Soon He will come again; and then He will take us home and there we shall be forever with Him. Oh, how precious is that bright and glorious prospect. Here again the practical point is to appropriate this to ourselves. "He is coming to take me-poor, guilty, worthless, hell-deserving me-He is coming to take me to Himself." And to the degree in which we enter into these glorious things, the joys of heaven have already commenced!
