

Bring Them to Me!

by George Warnock

---

The Church must surrender its resources and become one in God's hands to meet the needs of humanity.

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 12:12

Topics: "Surrender To God", "Unity In Christ"

---

Description

George Warnock emphasizes the importance of surrendering our resources and ministries entirely into the hands of God, rather than relying on human efforts such as raising money or expanding church programs. He highlights the significance of unity and oneness in the Body of Christ, symbolized by the five loaves and two fishes, being broken and mingled together in God's hands to meet the needs of humanity. Warnock challenges believers to have the courage to acknowledge their limitations and inadequacies, and to trust in God's provision and power to multiply what little they have for His purposes.

---

Transcript

When, O when, Church of the living God, are we going to learn this lesson? That it is not in the raising of more money, and the enlarging of our churches, and the furtherance of our programs, that we are going to feed the multitudes. But it is in the five loaves and the two fishes surrendered entirely into the hands of the Master! That it is in the ministry with which God has enriched His people--not standing apart behind a pulpit, but broken and mingled together with the fish that have been taken in the net, that God shall meet the needs of humanity, That it is only as they are taken together in His hands, and become one in His hands, and broken in His hands, and mingled together in His hands, that they shall become that life-giving Bread that God has prepared for human need.

Another billion dollars in the coffers of the Church will not accomplish what God wants accomplished in the earth. Selling your church edifices and building greater ones so that you can store more people will not do it, But a true Body (represented in the two fishes --"two" being the number of a corporate relationship); and a true ministry (represented in the five loaves); yet not two distinct entities as they exist today in the Church, but ONE in His hands, broken and mingled together, is God's total answer to human need.

Can we identify? Or at least, do we wish to identify? Do we have the courage to say with Philip, How are we going to meet the needs of humanity with so little? And further courage to say with Andrew, We have so little to offer?

Or are we going to continue to canvas the believers for more and more and more only to end up with two hundred pennyworth and still barely enough to give a very small handful a very small taste?

---

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/george-warnock/bring-them-to-me/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

---

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net