

How to Recieve God's Deep Burden for Souls

by Gerhard Du Toit

The sermon emphasizes the importance of understanding and relating to the concept of a person's soul, and having a deep burden for souls to bring about spiritual birth and guidance.

Duration: 54:52

Scripture: 1 Samuel 1:8, 1 Samuel 1:10-13, Isaiah 6:1-3, Isaiah 6:5, Isaiah 6:8

Topics: "Burden Of Prayer"

Description

In this sermon, the speaker emphasizes the importance of having a burden for souls and the power of prayer. He references a story of two girls who conducted special meetings and saw a great number of people come to Christ. The speaker highlights the need for consistency in praying for souls and shares an example of an old man who had been faithfully praying for 25 years. He encourages listeners to ask God for a burden for souls and to be consistent in their prayers for the salvation of others. The sermon draws inspiration from the biblical story of the prophet Isaiah and his encounter with the voice of God.

Transcript

I've been asked to speak tonight on the subject, what it means to speak of a person's soul. And as I was thinking about this today, you know, there's such a tremendous people that have this version that we paint upon their heart while we're speaking of the life force. You know, I constantly speak of that when we were straying deep, when we refused to take, and many years ago, she's given us a birth.

She wept so. I find it very difficult to understand that God can give us a birth. I mentioned about those open-ended people.

Do we know what it means to weep in the... Do we know, my friends, with a man in our mission in South Africa, one of our little workers went to the town. When Lala stepped off, can you show me the world? Why does it sound the same? They look so...
