by Gerhard Du Toit

The sermon emphasizes the importance of seeking God's face and spending time with Him to understand His plans and will for our lives.

Duration: 2:19

Scripture: 1 Chronicles 16:11, Psalm 27:8, Psalm 105:4, Isaiah 55:6, Jeremiah 29:13, Matthew 7:7, Hebrews 11:6

Topics: "Prayer"

Description

In this sermon, the preacher emphasizes the importance of seeking God's face and spending time with Him. He encourages the congregation to come forward and kneel before God, seeking His presence and opening their hearts to Him. The preacher invites those who feel touched by God to come forward and spend time alone with Him at the altar. He urges everyone to not miss out on anything that God has in store for them and to seek His face earnestly. The sermon emphasizes the need for personal, intimate communion with God.

Transcript

There are some of us, and God has been touching your heart, there are some of us, and we need to spend time with Him, and we need to open our hearts before Him, and we need to say, God, I don't want to miss anything that you have in store for me. We can open the altar of this beautiful church tonight, and I wonder if there are some of us and you say, Brother Gerard, I just want to come and seek the Lord. Can I challenge you, would you like just to slip out, come and find a spot, no one is going to pray with you, you're just going to be on your own, alone with God.

Would you like to come right now, just come and find a spot at the altar of the church, you come spend some time alone with God, we wait for you. Say, Lord, I need to seek your face right at this very, very first night. It's the Father, the Father of my children, the husband of my wife, the mother of my daughters, I need to seek your face.

We just wait, and you just come, would you? Still some people coming, we just wait for you. Anyone else who want to come? Those of us here at the front, we can take some time with God. Those of us that are standing, I'm going to ask you if you could just slip around on your knees, and that's the way we will close this first evening on our knees, and we take some time to seek God, and when you leave, we're going to ask that you leave very, very quietly, so that those of us that want to seek God can just seek Him.

So, just stand around and get on your knees before God, and that's the way we close this service.
