

The Unicorn

by Harriet N. Cook

The unicorn is a mysterious creature mentioned in the Bible, but its exact appearance remains unknown due to a lack of information.

Scripture: Numbers 23:22, Deuteronomy 33:17, Job 39:9, Psalm 92:10, Isaiah 34:7

Topics: "Biblical Creatures", "Gods Creation"

Description

Harriet N. Cook discusses the mysterious animal mentioned in the Bible that starts with the letter U, known as the unicorn. The true identity of this creature remains uncertain, with speculations ranging from a wild goat to a deer to even a rhinoceros. Despite various interpretations and depictions in art, the exact nature of the unicorn remains a mystery, reminding us of the limitations of human knowledge and the need for humility in understanding God's creation.

Transcript

There is only this animal mentioned in the Bible, the name of which begins with U, and of this I cannot give you a picture, because no person now knows what sort of an animal it was. Some suppose it was a kind of wild goat; others think that it was a sort of deer; and others, that it was what we call the rhinoceros. Perhaps you have seen pictures with the name of the unicorn under them; but you must remember that those who made them only guessed it was so, and that no person can certainly tell what it was.
