

Tell Out the Saviour's Fame!

by H.J. Vine

The sermon calls believers to proclaim the Saviour's fame and share the message of salvation with others.

Scripture: Matthew 28:19, John 3:16, Philippians 2:15, 1 John 1:9

Topics: "Evangelism", "Salvation"

Description

H.J. Vine passionately preaches about spreading the wondrous name of Jesus Christ to all creatures, emphasizing that eternal life is received through Him. He calls out to sinners to cast off their fear and trust in God's forgiveness and eternal peace. The preacher urges the saved to continue sharing the victory of Christ with others, keeping the light shining bright until hearing His sweet 'Well done.'

Transcript

Tell out the Saviour's fame!

Spread wide His wondrous Name!

Let every creature hear the Word:

That all, who now believe,

Eternal life receive

Through Jesus Christ, the risen Lord.

Come, all ye sinners, hear!

Cast off your guilty fear!

Our God in grace can now proclaim

Forgiveness full and free,

And peace eternally,

For all who trust the Saviour's Name.

Join, all ye saved of men!

Tell it again, again!

For sinners, Christ the victory won!

Hide not the precious light,

But keep it shining bright,

Until we hear His sweet "Well done."
