

Beware of Judaizing

by Ignatius of Antioch

The sermon emphasizes the importance of living according to the prophecy and being a holy people, as called by the name of Christ.

Scripture: Psalm 103:10, Romans 4:16, Galatians 3:28, Ephesians 4:22

Topics: "Christian Living", "Grace And Faith"

Description

Ignatius of Antioch emphasizes the importance of recognizing God's kindness and grace, urging believers to live in a manner worthy of their calling as Christians. He highlights the need to let go of old sinful ways and embrace the new life of grace found in Christ, warning against holding onto outdated practices like Judaism. Ignatius stresses the unity in Christ, where believers from all nations are gathered unto God, becoming children of Abraham through faith in Jesus.

Transcript

Let us not, therefore, be insensible to His kindness. For were He to reward us according to our works, we should cease to be. For "if Thou, Lord, shalt mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? " Let us therefore prove ourselves worthy of that name which we have received. For whosoever is called by any other name besides this, he is not of God; for he has not received the prophecy which speaks thus concerning us: "The people shall be called by a new name, which the Lord shall name them, and shall be a holy people." This was first fulfilled in Syria; for "the disciples were called Christians at Antioch," when Paul and Peter were laying the foundations of the Church.

Lay aside, therefore, the evil, the old, the corrupt leaven, and be ye changed into the new leaven of grace.

Abide in Christ, that the stranger may not have dominion over you. It is absurd to speak of Jesus Christ with the tongue, and to cherish in the mind a Judaism which has now come to an end. For where there is Christianity there cannot be Judaism. For Christ is one, in whom every nation that believes, and every tongue that confesses, is gathered unto God. And those that were of a stony heart have become the children of Abraham, the friend of God; and in his seed all those have been blessed who were ordained to eternal life in Christ.
