Description

Isaac Watts preaches about the divine sacrifice of Jesus, highlighting how he willingly submitted to his Father's will and died to save the guilty race. Despite the act of vengeance, there is wisdom and grace in Jesus' sacrifice as he rises again, showcasing his divine nature. The sermon emphasizes the glorious reign of Jesus as the Savior and King, calling for every nation and angels to sing praises with endless joy.

Transcript

Thus saith the Ruler of the Skies,
Awake my dreadful Sword;
Awake my Wrath, and smite the Man
My fellow, saith the Lord.
Vengeance receiv'd the dread command,
And armed down she flies,
Jesus submits to his Father's hand,
And bows his head and dies.
But oh! the Wisdom and the Grace
That join with Vengeance now!
He dies to save our Guilty Race,
And yet he rises too.

A Person so divine was he
Who yielded to be slain,
That he could give his Soul away,
And take his Life again.
Live, glorious Lord, and reign on high,
Let every Nation sing,
And Angels sound with endless joy
The Saviour and the King.
