Description

In this sermon, the preacher addresses the concept of change in the world and the challenges that people face, such as conflict, anxiety, fear, and poverty. He shares personal experiences of witnessing the pain and loss of others, including the burial of a baby and the death of young people. The preacher emphasizes the importance of finding joy and rejoicing in the midst of these difficulties, as believers are called the children of God. He also mentions that in the upcoming sermon, he will discuss the destiny of departed loved ones and the hope of eternal life.
