

Living Under Open Heaven

by James A. Stewart

Living under an open heaven means experiencing God's presence, power, and peace in everyday life, leading to a victorious and transformed life.

Duration: 49:47

Scripture: Romans 3:24

Topics: "Open Heaven"

Description

In this sermon, the preacher shares a personal experience of a powerful encounter with God during a Bible study in Hungary. He emphasizes the importance of believers being indoctrinated in the Word of God rather than just engaging in superficial activities. The preacher describes how the power of God came upon him and his interpreter, leading to a profound silence among the thousands of people present. He encourages believers to seek revival and be willing to go through difficult times, knowing that joy will come in the morning.

Transcript

Oh, our gracious God and our Father, we thank thee for the theme of the solar at just sound. Some golden day, hooray! You are in Ukraine, living under a noose. Maybe you're crying, it's impossible.

And a man or woman who would come into a meeting and and I said, do you own me a noose? And God is saying, maybe two or three or four. And then some young girls are talking about and you see what happens in Sunday in these meetings.
