

(Sermon Clip) Jesus Weeps over Disunity in the Body of Christ

by James Robison

This sermon emphasizes the power of prayer and the need for righteous individuals to intercede for others. It highlights the importance of praying for spiritual leaders and being receptive to the messages God communicates through them. The speaker urges the congregation to focus on praying for spiritual insight and to avoid judgmentalism or criticism, emphasizing the transformative impact of heartfelt prayers throughout the day. The vision of Jesus weeping over the church serves as a poignant reminder of the need for genuine, wholehearted worship and intercession.

Scripture: James 5:16, 1 Timothy 2:1, Psalm 51:17, Mark 11:24

Topics: "Power of Prayer", "Intercession for Others"

You say, James, we can hear God through these men. Yes, you can. You say, well, what are we to do if you or any other man makes a mistake? You're to pray us right.

Do you believe in the power of prayer? Do you believe the effectual fervent prayer of righteous people have added much? Do you believe that you could pray me right? Could we begin to focus our attention on the needs of these men and pray for them and receive what the Spirit of God is saying through anyone God has set apart? Would you do it and Be made whole and blessed. I believe God is going to change every one of us more than we could ever But I do not believe it's going to come through judgmentalism or criticism It is going to come through prayer from a broken heart throughout the day I've had a vision of Jesus over and over in my mind. Weeping, weeping, weeping, weeping over the church Weeping that we might be healed and Minister life To one another for you or for me to offer God less than our heart We offer him a polluted defiled sacrifice.

We bring him the lame the halt and the blind and We offer him an abomination You know that if you come and I come before God to sing praises to the Lord And our hearts are turned away from God We are offering him less than the sacrifice of a heart toward God and we are defiling we are defiling the house
