

August 18. 1678. the Sign, and the Thing Signified.

by Jane Lead

The Sign and the Thing Signified are two parts of a greater mystery that will ultimately put an end to all controversy.

Scripture: Matthew 24:30, 1 Corinthians 15:52, Colossians 1:16, Revelation 10:7

Topics: "Second Coming", "Divine Plan"

Description

Jane Lead preaches about the anticipation of Christ's coming and the signs that precede His substantial power and presence, emphasizing the need for believers to be prepared for the ultimate fulfillment of this great mystery. She highlights that everything in the heavens and on earth must align for this purpose, bringing an end to all controversies and ushering in the completion of God's divine plan.

Transcript

ALL that hath yet been revealed to thee, is but a forerunner. As it was said of Christ's coming, that the Sign of the Son of Man should first appear in the Heavens, but then the substantial Power and Presence must follow, as the thing Signified, which would put an end to all Controversie. Now for the perfecting of this great Mystery, all whatever is in thy Heavens and Earth, must be given hereunto.
