

February 11. 1678.

by Jane Lead

To be found in God's favor, we must seek purity and cleanse ourselves from the influence of sin.

Scripture: Psalm 51:2, Isaiah 1:18, Ephesians 1:7, 1 John 1:7

Topics: "Blood Of Christ", "Spiritual Purity"

Description

Jane Lead preaches about the necessity of being cleansed by the blood of Jesus to attain purity and beauty in the eyes of God. She emphasizes the importance of surrendering the dark and sinful nature within us to fully experience the radiant beauty of Christ. Only by immersing ourselves in the cleansing power of Jesus' blood can we stand before God's presence blameless and pure.

Transcript

This Word was brought to me, upon the Meditation of the divine Body. Would you be found in the Nazarite beauty all fair and clear, without the Dark and Cloudy Body of Sin. Then for this rowle your selves in the Fountain Blood, that is open. That is it only, that can give the pure white lustre, that will commend ye to the open Face of God, who are here so sollicitous for it.
