

January 7. 1678. the Date of Time.

by Jane Lead

The Kingdom of Heaven will manifest when the Evil Spirit is cast out, requiring great abstinence and fasting and prayer.

Scripture: Luke 11:20

Topics: "Spiritual Kingdom", "Fervent Prayer"

Description

Jane Lead preaches about the conflict and uncertainty surrounding the arrival of the Spiritual Kingdom, emphasizing the need for fasting, prayer, and abstinence to cast out the Evil Spirit and make way for the Kingdom of Heaven. She highlights the importance of observing the fall of the Earthly and Satanical Kingdom as a sign of the imminent arrival of God's Kingdom. Jane encourages fervent prayer and supplication through the Spirit to prepare for the manifestation of the Kingdom of God.

Transcript

This Night I was in much conflict, concerning the time of this Spiritual Kingdom, as to the time, when it might appear, whether or not to any it was near. And it was thus answered by an internal Word, saying, the Kingdom of Heaven so cometh in, as the Evil Spirit is cast out: This kind as it is written goeth not out, but by fasting and Prayer. So verily this Kingdom to no one will be manifested, but by great abstinence, from what props up, and does nourish the Earthly and Satanical Kingdom. When you see that fall, as Lightening into its own Abyss, and Lake from whence it came, then ye may conclude the Kingdom of God is at the Door. For which Pray with all manner of Prayer, and Supplication through the Spirit.
