

July 24. 1678. the Wise Adventure.

by Jane Lead

The sermon calls believers to throw themselves upon God's power, trusting in His provision and obtaining a deeper understanding of heavenly things.

Scripture: Proverbs 3:5, Matthew 14:29, Colossians 2:2, Hebrews 11:6

Topics: "Faith And Trust", "Spiritual Growth"

Description

Jane Lead preaches about the importance of taking a leap of faith and surrendering to the power of God, encouraging believers to trust in Him completely. By casting ourselves upon the deep Ocean-Power of God, our spiritual vision will be cleared to see heavenly things and receive divine revelations. This act of faith allows us to access the treasures of God's kingdom and receive His blessings according to our needs.

Transcript

The Word of Life did open this Day, saying, Adventure to throw and cast your selves upon the deep Ocean-Power. For thereby your sight will be so cleared, as to behold Objects and Things in the Heavenly Sphere. Which will plunge deeper into that Region, where every decree of Faith doth obtain God's irreversible Seal. It is a good hazard to put your selves upon this open Sea, wherein is contained all Treasures, which the hand of Faith may draw up at pleasure, according as every exigence may require.
