

June 25. 1678.

by Jane Lead

The sermon emphasizes the importance of turning to God as the sole source of true relief and protection.

Scripture: Psalm 18:2, Isaiah 45:22, Ephesians 6:13, Hebrews 6:19

Topics: "Faith And Hope", "Spiritual Strength"

Description

Jane Lead emphasizes the importance of fixing our gaze on God, the ultimate source of help and relief. She encourages anchoring our hope in the power of the God-head to withstand challenges and obstacles. By remaining steadfast in God, we can become like a strong, unyielding wall against all opposition.

Transcript

Then again this Word, came, look neither this way, nor that: From the high and lofty One, turn not away your Eye; for in very deed no relief can come, but from the working Power of the God-head. Lay there your Anchor of Hope steadfast, and sure: And you shall as a Brazen Wall be made, all the pushing Horns, for to retard.
