

June 9. 1678.

by Jane Lead

Faith is the foundation of our strength and the source of our peace and joy, and it grows mighty in us as we trust in God.

Scripture: Isaiah 50:4, John 14:27, 2 Corinthians 12:9, Ephesians 3:16, Colossians 2:7

Topics: "Daily Prayer", "Spiritual Growth"

Description

Jane Lead emphasizes the importance of seeking counsel from God daily, allowing the mind to be focused on Him for renewed strength and guidance. She warns against straying from faith, as it leads to troubles and anxieties, but encourages finding peace and joy through unwavering belief in the name of Jesus. Despite our weaknesses, as we grow in faith, the power of the Spirit within us will strengthen and empower us.

Transcript

Much Counsel from the Holy One is renewed, Morning by Morning, as the Mind is introverted into God. But this Word came in special: Return, see that ye abide in the strong hold of Faith; For if ye therefrom be found, Troubles will surround, and tormenting Cares will abound: but all Quietness and Joy is found in Believing in that Name, that the Spirit is sowing in us, but yet in Weakness; but it will have its rising Power, as Faith grows mighty in you.
