

November 5. 1678. the Fountain Out of the Rock.

by Jane Lead

In times of distress and perplexity, we must hold fast to our faith and trust in God's love and power to overcome our struggles.

Scripture: Psalm 46:1, Isaiah 58:11, Hebrews 11:1, 1 Peter 5:7

Topics: "Faith And Trials", "Divine Provision"

Description

Jane Lead preaches about the challenging times of distress and perplexity faced by those striving against the overwhelming worldly influences, while also emphasizing the current time as a period of God's love that will ultimately work everything for good. She encourages the congregation to remain vigilant, holding onto their faith as a powerful tool, allowing the strength of God to extinguish all consuming trials. By opening up to this faith, a continuous flow of divine provision will follow like a spring, sustaining them on their journey until they reach a place of peace and rest in Lebanon.

Transcript

As I was exercised in my Mind, in and about the Heavenly Things. This came into me. I know it is a time of distress and perplexity with them, who are struggling against this Worldly Sea, that it might not overwhelm, but now it is also the time of God's Love, that will work all through for you. Be but vigilant, holding fast that piercing Engin of Faith, that the Rock of Strength may smight to quench all fiery drought. Which if it once be but opened, no fear, but this will follow as a Fountain Spring, while ye are journeying on, till ye come to pitch in LEBANON.
