Description

Jane Lead preaches about the importance of being wise and attentive to God's instructions, ensuring that His light within us remains bright and clear. She emphasizes the need to continuously trim our lamps with the oil of His Word to avoid stumbling over obstacles and offenses that may come our way. Jane Lead assures that God's presence will always be with us as we journey towards the promised land of peace.

Transcript

This Word also of Instruction came to me, saying, I have made known most excellent and worth Things, tending all to the Translating State. Be wise, and let nothing of my Light be dim'd, but while the Oil doth run, trim daily your Lamps therewith, that ye may clearly see, and not stumble at those Stones of offences, that may be thrown in the way. For as ye move here, my Presence shall move with you; till ye come to possess the Land of Peace, and Promise.
