

Joshua Miktarian Funeral - Part 5

by Jason Robinson

The sermon emphasizes the importance of living for truth and doing your best to serve God, as this is what truly matters in life.

Duration: 2:41

Scripture: Matthew 6:19

Topics: "Eternal Rewards", "Gods Mercy"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the importance of living a life dedicated to God, focusing on doing everything for His glory and love. It highlights the eternal value of living for God's truth and love, as earthly treasures fade away but what is done for God's reward lasts forever. The message celebrates God's mercy that sees beyond our weaknesses, transforming sinners into saints, and the assurance of a heavenly home for those who live for Him.

Transcript

There is just one thing that matters, did I do my best to live for truth, did I live my life for you? When it's all been said and done, all my treasures will mean nothing, only what I've done for love's reward will stand the test of time. Lord, your mercy is so great that you look beyond our weakness and find pure as gold in my reclaim, making sinners into saints. And I will always sing your praise, here on earth and ever after, for you've shown me heaven's my true home.

When it's all been said and done, you're my life when life is gone. When it's all been said and done, there is just one thing that matters, did I do my best to live for truth, did I live my life for you? Lord, I'll live my life for you.
