Transcript

Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is risen. Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is come. Jesus Christ is coming back.

Hallelujah, hallelujah, O Lord, please come soon. I'll tell you the story of the man who died for me. His life led him from a stable crib to a tree at Calvary.

His mother called him Jesus cause he'd save us from our sins. The only thing that is required is that you let him in. Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is risen.

Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is come. Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is coming back. Hallelujah, hallelujah, O Lord, please come soon.

The people rose against him, the scribes and the Pharisees. They tried him under Pilate, but Pilate said, I wash my hands of thee. They rudely pushed my Lord along into the prison he was led.

Thirty-nine lashes on his back, crown of thorns upon his head. Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is risen. Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is come.

Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is coming back. Hallelujah, hallelujah, O Lord, please come soon. They mocked him and they scorned him and they smote him on the face.

How cruelly they treated the Redeemer of Adam's race. They led him out to bear his cross, but he stumbled and he fell. How strange this stumbling man has power to save your soul from hell.

Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is risen. Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is come. Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is coming back.

Hallelujah, hallelujah, O Lord, please come soon. Lifted up upon the tree, lifted up to die. His mother wept as she beheld her son against the sky.

They laid him in the tomb that day, guarded by two men. But early on that Easter morn our Savior rose again. Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is risen.

Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is come. Hallelujah, hallelujah, Jesus Christ is coming back. Hallelujah, hallelujah, O Lord, please come soon.
