

God Doesn't Use Actors

by Jim Cymbala

This sermon emphasizes the importance of being authentic and true to oneself when serving God, highlighting the example of David who refused to conform to others' expectations but fought Goliath in his own unique way. It encourages individuals, whether aspiring pastors, missionaries, or everyday Christians, to embrace their identity and trust that God can use them just as they are, without pretending to be someone else.

Scripture: 1 Samuel 17:39, Psalm 139:14, 1 Corinthians 12:18, Ephesians 2:10

Topics: "Authenticity in Faith", "Embracing Your Identity"

Transcript

The biggest battle in life, if you want to be used by God, for some maybe future pastor, missionary, everyday Christian, your life is just as important. You must be who you are. God does not use actors.

Broadway has actors. We have to be like David. No, no, I can't do that.

That's the way you fight. I can't even walk around in it. Can you see David like clunk, clunk, clunk? I can't.

I have to go who I am. I know you can't fight Goliath with a shepherd's staff. Notice he's not a sheep, two legs, not four.

He's not low to the ground. No, but that's who I am. David, put away the stones.

This is not, we're not playing children's games now. No, this is the way God wants me to fight the battle.
