Description

John Henry Jowett preaches about the journey of old Mr. Honest as he faced death, declaring 'Grace reigns!' as his final words, reflecting on how grace guided him throughout his life's pilgrimage in Emmanuel's land. Mr. Honest experienced grace in finding the way of life, being delivered from dangers, receiving peace, refreshment, and inspiration, and ultimately passing through death with 'grace abounding' into radiant glories. Jowett emphasizes that in every faithful pilgrimage, the decrees of sovereign love are evident, with 'Grace reigning' in every aspect of life, from green pastures to rugged roads, from the day of life to the passage through death.

Transcript

ROMANS v. 12-21.

When old Mr. Honest came to the river, and he entered the cold waters of death, the last words he was heard to utter by those who stood on the shore were these:--"Grace reigns!" All through his pilgrimage old Mr. Honest had been in Emmanuel's land where grace reigned night and day. It was through grace that he had found the way of life. It was through grace that he had been delivered from the beasts and pitfalls of the road. It was grace that had given him lilies of peace, and springs of refreshment, and the fine air that inspired him in difficult tasks. And in death he still found "grace abounding," and the Lord of the changing road was also Lord of the dark waters through which he passed into the radiant glories of the cloudless day.

In every yard of a faithful pilgrimage we shall find the decrees of sovereign love. We are never in alien country. "Grace reigns" in every hill and valley, through every green pasture and over every rugged road, in every moment of "the day of life," and in the last sharp passage through the transient night of death.
