

My Sins Rose as High as a Mountain (Singing)

by John Lawley

The sermon emphasizes the love and promise of the Saviour, who gave up His glory to save us and promises to put our names down for a palace and crown.

Duration: 2:02

Scripture: Psalm 103:12, John 3:16, Romans 5:8, 1 Peter 2:9, Revelation 21:4

Topics: "Grace", "Salvation"

Description

John Lawley shares a heartfelt message about the overwhelming love of the Savior, who sacrificed everything to save sinners. He emphasizes the joy of salvation, illustrating how one's name can rise high like a mountain, symbolizing the grace and redemption found in Christ. The sermon encourages believers to celebrate their salvation with joy and gratitude, recognizing the promise of eternal life and a heavenly home.

Transcript

I've heard all the Saviour's love was strong. He loved poor sinner like me. He turned his back on the glory I sprung, so save poor sinner like me.

The angels they sang him from glory. I'm glad they told me the story. He sang from life, so suffer and die and save poor sinner like me.

Now everybody help me with the chorus and clap your hands with all the joy and soul you have. My name rose up high as a mountain. They all disappeared in the fountain.

He put my name down for a palace and crown. Let me get there, I pray.
