

Don't Grumble In Your Wilderness Experience

by John Piper

This sermon emphasizes the importance of trusting God even in the midst of challenging and seemingly impossible situations, drawing from the failure of Israel to trust God in the wilderness. The message is to not question God when faced with barren and hopeless circumstances but to trust Him fully, knowing that He has the power to lead you out of the wilderness.

Scripture: Isaiah 43:19, Psalm 23:4, Proverbs 3:5, Hebrews 11:1, Romans 8:28

Topics: "Trusting God in Trials", "Overcoming Doubt"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the importance of trusting God even in the midst of challenging and seemingly impossible situations, drawing from the failure of Israel to trust God in the wilderness. The message is to not question God when faced with barren and hopeless circumstances but to trust Him fully, knowing that He has the power to lead you out of the wilderness.

Transcript

This failure of Israel to trust God in the wilderness reverberates through the whole Bible and the message is this, when God brings you into a waterless encampment and you see wilderness stretching in every direction and no way out, don't be like that. Don't question Him, trust Him. Trust Him.

He brought you into the wilderness, He can bring you out.
