

Prayer for the Holy Spirit - 3

by John R. Rice

The Holy Spirit is a gift for believers who ask for His power in their lives, giving us the might to live for God and witness for Him.

Duration: 13:06

Scripture: Luke 11:13, John 14:26, Acts 1:8, Romans 8:26, Galatians 5:22, Ephesians 5:18

Topics: "Holy Spirit", "Discipleship"

Description

In this sermon, the speaker discusses the importance of prayer and confessing sins. They emphasize the need to be disciplined and desperate in seeking God. The speaker also mentions the consequences of not living a disciplined life and the potential for disaster. They encourage listeners to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ and to not mock or judge others. The sermon references various Bible verses to support these teachings.

Transcript

Now then, let's see, who of us is the one that has the might, that's God, isn't it? And Jesus, and the three lords, the head father, the son, and the holy spirit. Hey, what do you all promise the power of the holy spirit? Once I was there, I was told this in my mind. And I said, Lord, this is kind of clear.

And who will come home for visiting me back?
