

Jesus Is the Light of the World - Part 4

by Joshua Daniel

The speaker emphasizes the importance of living out one's faith and sharing the love of Jesus with others.

Duration: 4:31

Scripture: Psalm 23:4, Isaiah 41:10, Matthew 28:20, John 14:18, 1 Peter 3:15

Topics: "Gods Presence", "Faith Trust"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the power of experiencing God's presence and guidance rather than relying solely on empty talk or discussions. It highlights the transformative impact of witnessing the reality of Jesus in action, leading individuals to turn to Him. The speaker encourages a deep trust in God's protection and care, urging listeners to live without fear or panic, knowing that they are loved and supported by their Heavenly Father. The prayer concludes with a plea for a clear testimony of Jesus as the Savior of the world in all aspects of life.

I hate talk, empty talk. People blame me, in fact. They say, Brother Joe doesn't talk.

We want to sit down and discuss, talk. I never did that in my life. Communists, atheists, others who came and sat and heard God's Word from my student years, they never said, let's sit down and discuss.

Never. They saw the reality of Jesus. They saw the Lord working and they turned to Jesus.

So I'm not in the habit of just sitting and talking. Let us pray. Let us tell God, Lord, when I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil.

For thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Lord, I want to live this experience of not panicking, not feeling abandoned, not feeling helpless. My Heavenly Father knows.

I am His disciple. My Father cares. My Savior's name is Immanuel, loving Father.

We want to really bring some little honor to you. In a day wherein people say, who is your God? Where is your God? Where people would almost ask you, like those men who said, who are you anyway? Oh, loving Father, let us not leave this matter in doubt. Where we work, where we live, let people know that Jesus is the Savior of the world.

Hear our prayer. In Jesus' holy name. Amen.
