

(Sermon Clip) Choosing Uncleaness and Despising God

by Joshua Daniel

This sermon emphasizes the importance of holiness as a basic requirement from God, highlighting the dangers of choosing uncleaness over holiness. It warns against despising God by neglecting holiness and the need to be obedient doers of the word, not just hearers. The message stresses the significance of approaching God with a broken spirit, acknowledging our need for His cleansing and surrendering ourselves completely to Him.

Scripture: 1 Thessalonians 4:7, Hebrews 12:14, James 1:22, Psalm 51:17, 1 Peter 1:16

Topics: "Holiness", "Obedience to God's Word"

Transcript

When we fight against holiness and choose uncleaness, then we are despising not man but God, who has given unto us the Holy Spirit. Holiness is God's basic requirement. And you know that holiness does not come to us automatically? No.

As a matter of fact, uncleaness seems to come to people automatically. In spite of everything, the best of education, the best of this, and the best of that, does not address the cancer of uncleaness. The cancer of uncleaness in families, the cancer of uncleaness in a nation, the cancer of uncleaness in a society where marriage is just made light of.

My friends, there is disaster ahead when we despise God. God says, you have despised me. How am I, a small lily potion, going to look at God and despise Him? I tremble before Him.

I want to obey Him. Be not hearers of the word, but doers, doers, not despisers of the word. Friends, we have to choose a religion without power, a religion which is just hearing, hearing, going through the motions, or going to God with a broken spirit, and saying, here I am, O Lord.

Take me, this foul creature. Standing here, take me. And you have a...
