

The Promises of God - Part 1

by Kathryn Kuhlman

---

Kathryn Kuhlman's sermon explores the profound impact of God's promises and the necessity of faith in experiencing His truth and presence.

Duration: 28:49

Scripture: Genesis 1:3-22, Exodus 20:3, Matthew 6:33

Topics: "Promises"

---

Description

In this sermon, the preacher emphasizes the importance of believing in the word of God. He shares his personal experience of receiving a Bible from God, which has brought him peace. The preacher encourages the audience to stay rooted in their faith and not be influenced by worldly expectations. He also mentions the need to teach the younger generation about the word of God and warns against straying from it. The sermon concludes with a reminder to trust in God and seek strength from Him.

---

Transcript

And now, wonderful Jesus, I pray that not one person shall see Catherine Kuhn. Not one, not a man, not a woman, not a young person shall see thy servant. Not one.

No one has come here to see a personality. No one has come here to see Catherine Kuhn. They're here because we're hungry for the truth.

It's the truth that sets us free. It's the truth that gives us security. It's that truth that gives us peace of mind and peace of soul.

And I pray that not one shall leave the services today. Not just this service, but the services today here in the Hilton Hotel. Not one shall leave the same person they were when they came, for Jesus' sake.

Amen. There's a familiar scripture, and I know that practically every preacher in the ministry has preached from it. I want to read it because it means a lot to me.

It's in Genesis, the forty-fifth verse, you know, when Joseph's bread was sent to Jacob. Let's read the scripture. And to his father he sent after this manor ten asses laden with the good things of Egypt, ten she-asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father.

By the way, oh, great abundance, just a great abundance. And so he sent his brethren away and they departed. And he said unto them, See that ye fall not out by the way.

And they went up out of Egypt and they came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father and told him, saying, and remember, Jacob thought Joseph was dead. He was so sure that his son Joseph had died. This is beautiful.

I never weary in reading. He was so sure in his own mind that his son was dead. They told him, saying, Joseph thy son is alive.

Father, Joseph is alive. He's not dead. What clarity! How can you tell a father who thinks that his son is dead? His child is dead.

How can you tell him? Thy son is alive. And he's governor over all the land of Egypt. And Jacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not.

He still couldn't believe, just couldn't believe. Even after they told him. And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them.

But watch something. But when he saw the wagons, when he looked out of the window and he saw the wagons, and he saw those wagons loaded to go, he knew there was only one who would have done it. Just one.

And the whole world, it was only he knew it. It was like his son. He knew it, he knew it, he knew it.

When he saw the way which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob, their father, revived. And Israel said, it's enough. It's enough.

Joseph, my son, is yet alive. I've seen enough. I have seen enough.

Only my son, Joseph, would have done that. You don't have to kill me anymore. You don't have to bring him to me.

I don't have to place my hand on his shoulder. I don't have to look into his face. I don't have to have him to speak to me audibly.

That's my son. That's my boy. He's alive.

I will go and see him before I die. You'll ask me and say, you're so strong in your faith, and you've preached the word ever since you were in your teens. More than that, I've given my life.

Do you realize that I have given my whole life to the preaching of the gospel? It's all that I know. I haven't done anything else. Do you realize? Standing before you, I'm not just somebody who's given five years of her life, ten years.

I've given my whole to the preaching of the word. And a skeptic will come to me and say, you're a fool. Have you ever seen God? I have never seen God.

He has never spoken to me audibly. Never. I've never heard an audible word from him.

I've never caught a glimpse. And God is more than just an influence. God is a person.

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

---

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net