Description

In this sermon, the speaker shares a personal story of being in war and the guilt and confusion he felt after killing someone. He expresses anger towards God for allowing such violence and suffering in the world. The speaker then reads verses from the Bible about God's judgment and the consequences of not being prepared to meet Him. He emphasizes the urgency of seeking God and being ready for judgment, as illustrated by a selfless act of sacrifice by a fellow soldier who protected him from gunfire.

Do you mind if I took this jacket off? It's cold outside but it's hot inside. Please forgive me, not every preacher looks this bad in the pulpit. Pulling off his jacket before he starts.

America is strange. You freeze one moment, the next moment you're hot. Unless this is old age, I'm not sure.

There are some staggering verses in this holy book that one dare not take lightly, dare not laugh at. For God says, you'll be judged by this word, by how you listen to it. We may forget, God will never forget, every thought when we listen to this word.

There are staggering verses here we need to listen to from our hearts, not in our minds. Hebrews 9.27, it is appointed unto men once to die. God says, that's something not one of you will escape, that appointment.

It is appointed unto men once to die. But after this, the judgment. God said, the judgment.

In Revelation 20 verse 10, John records the revelation given to him by Jesus of mankind's destination. And he wrote these words in Revelation 20 verse 10, And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away, and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God.

I saw the dead, small, children, and great, grown-ups, stand before God. And the books were opened. And another book was opened, which is the book of life.

And the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books according to their works. The dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it, and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them.

And they were judged, every man, every man, according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

And whosoever was not found written in the book of life, whosoever was not found written in the book of life, was cast into the lake of fire. There is no mercy if you die without having prepared to meet with God. It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this, one thing, if you have not prepared to meet with God God's way, judgment, judgment.

It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of a living God, this holy book says. Why does God say that? The strangest thing is those hands will for all eternity bear witness that they tasted death for every man. That will never cease, the Bible says, to be the marks of witness for eternity.

That he loved every soul and died for them. Who will have all men to be saved and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. 1 Timothy 4 verse 2, who gave himself a ransom for all.

Those hands that will bear witness to this love for your soul. There is no mercy in them if you die without having sought his salvation. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of a living God, the holy book says.

Whosoever was not found written in the book of life, was cast into the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone. You want a shocking revelation, go just through the verses of this book. Concerning the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone.

Where the smoke of their torment ascended up forever, God said. And ever, day and night. And God is a liar if that isn't true the moment he died.

Where the smoke of their torment ascended up forever and ever. 2 Thessalonians 1 verse 8, he will return, God says. Christ will return.

He will return in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God. And that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will return in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God.

And that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ who shall be punished with everlasting destruction. Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction. From the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his power.

And I could go on and I have in sermons that you will find in over 200 websites. There's one sermon where I bring about 240 verses of the Bible and nothing else but the judgments of God in this book. That you probably won't hear in 99% of the pulpits of the world today.

Because a society that refuses to hear anything but the love of God. Not God's judgment upon those who sin and will not turn. And seek him while he may be found.

Fearful verses strewn through this Bible. There's another verse that staggered my heart when I was a young convert 47 years ago. A blaze for God and desiring virtually nothing in life but to devour this book that gave me life.

And I came to this verse in Proverbs chapter 11 verse 30. The fruit, the fruit of the righteous. Those who are rightly related to God.

If you are righteous, if you are right with God there has to be fruit. There cannot be a person on earth who is rightly related to God without this fruit. The fruit of the righteous.

Those who become right with God is a tree of life. Now that's a staggering statement. Are you known as someone who has a testimony or are you known as someone in this world who is a tree of life to this world? But it doesn't stop there.

It explains what he's speaking of. The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life. He that winneth souls.

He that winneth souls, God says, is wise. You want another staggering study through the Old Testament? And the New, but especially the Old. Go and take this one word, wise.

And you will find how many times it's related to someone who turns others to God. Once he's found the way of salvation himself. God says this is wisdom.

It's not wisdom to go to a theological seminar and get degrees out of the door. And know the Hebrew and Greek and not know how to win a soul to God. That is foolishness.

God's wisdom that he looks upon as wise as someone who has limited knowledge but enough experiential knowledge to have saved his soul. And then reaches to the world every step he takes with that knowledge to bring others to Christ. And doesn't bury it.

And only care for his own soul. Oh, he goes on. The fruit of the righteous.

If you're right with God, he's a tree of life. He that winneth souls is wise. Are you a soul winner? I'm not asking if you're saved.

That can mean anything. Actually, that can mean nothing today. It's so abused.

I'm asking every one of you. Are you a soul winner? Since you say your soul was saved. Are you known in this world, beginning in your home? And to every step you take, wherever you can.

Are you a soul winner? Daniel, in the Old Testament, speaks of this again. And he says, they that be wise. Daniel chapter 12, verse 3. They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament.

They that turn many to righteousness. They that turn many to righteousness. They shall shine as the stars forever and ever.

You know who won others to God. For eternity. You will never cease to recognize.

Otherwise, start tearing these verses out of the Bible. You might get there by the grace of God. And that is wonderful.

But, for eternity, they that turn many to righteousness. Shall shine in a way others won't. They shall shine as the brightness of the firmament forever and ever.

God has a promise here. Not just to those who are made righteous. But find the fruit that God requires that He calls wisdom.

They that turn many to righteousness. He that wins souls. For eternity, you will know.

Who turned many to righteousness. You will know who turned no one but themselves to righteousness. To seek God's righteousness by grace through faith in the blood of Jesus.

Tell me. How many have you turned to righteousness since you were made righteous by the blood of Christ? In God's eyes. Which is what happened.

How many have you turned to God? Are you a soul winner? That's the great question. Are you a soul winner? I was a young fellow. Some of your age.

I was a saint. And I stood in front of a man. A preacher in my country.

The other side of the world. Young. Ignorant.

But on fire for God. You don't have to go through university to be on fire for God. You just have to get saved.

And soak yourself in the Bible. And this fuel. Just like petrol.

Like gas on a flame. Nothing else will keep you on fire. Don't neglect the Bible.

From the day you're saved to the day you die. I neglect anything but don't neglect this. The fire ceases to burn like it should be.

It becomes human fire. If this isn't the fire, it's you. The word of God.

Oh, I was ablaze. But I stood in a building where one of the greatest preachers in the history of Africa. One of the most staggeringly fruitful and revered and respected preachers in our nation's history.

Was there. I didn't know who he was. There were other preachers.

There were other Christians. Godly people. And here I was, the youngest in the whole building.

Standing there looking around. As if I was part of it, you see. I'm saved.

I'm excited. So I looked at this man who seemed to have the reverence of everyone. And I said, but sir.

When were you saved? When did you come to Christ? How did you come to know Jesus? Everyone in that building stopped and looked at me as if to say. How can this young fellow address this godly man and ask him when he was saved? They looked slightly alarmed. When he looked at me, he walked over the room toward me.

And he smiled. And I was standing, so I just looked at him and I realized, wow. I must have asked the wrong question.

But I looked at him. He said, I'll tell you. I'll tell you.

I was young. I was 18 years old. And the Second World War broke out between Germany and Britain and its allies.

And many countries, including here in Africa, having been part of the British colonies, they enrolled in their thousands to go to war as allies with Britain's armies against Germany. And though I was 18, I went to war with many of my friends from school, from the farms around us. We all went on the trains, on the ships.

There we were in the battlefields of Europe. And he said, I've never ever tasted alcohol in my life. I come from a home where that was not expected of me and I honored my father.

I didn't smoke. I didn't swear. I was a good living person from a good home.

But I remember taking a gun. And I remember the first battle that I was in. Aiming that gun at someone who was aiming a gun at me as he was coming past.

And I aimed this gun and I pulled the trigger. And I saw this young man my age slump onto his knees and just begin to swagger and sway. And I walked up to him.

He looked up at me. He was a boy like me. And then as he looked at me, tears pouring down his face, he fell dead.

Now my boy, it was war. I had to shoot him. But I just remember my mind closing in a way I could never word or put into words that anyone could comprehend.

I had killed someone, even if it was war, for the first time in my life. A young life who had a father and mother that he had left like I had left my father and mother. And my mind went into a whirlwind of confusion and fear and anger that I had killed someone.

And then the battles went on. And I remember shooting one person after the other. And as I shot them, I couldn't just walk past, no matter how I looked, as they died.

And I remember coming to a place where I couldn't sleep. I was in such a state and frame of mind and anger at God. I had such an anger at God that he made a world where men, young, who hadn't even really started life, were killing each other.

Even if it's war. I was so angry with God for making such a world. I was so angry with men for creating war.

I was angry with everything. And so confused and my mind so closed. And I was weeping.

I found myself just weeping all the time as I was killing. There's no glory in war. Hollywood makes it glory.

War is evil. There's no glory in war, boy. Most men who don't get killed come back and they never recover mentally.

They malfunction to their families and to the world to the day they die. Those who aren't destroyed in the millions. For war, there's no glamour in it.

Don't doubt that. And I was angry. We had a pass.

We went off to the local town in Europe. One of these soldiers that was with me was watching me. And he held out alcohol to me.

And I said, no, I don't drink. He said, don't you argue with me. You need this.

Look at you. This will help you. Come, take it.

Drink. As I took it and I started drinking, I'd never ever tasted alcohol in my life. And I just drank and drank and my mind went into a stupor and a numb and whirlwind.

And I fell drunk. They had to carry me back to the war. I was drunk the first time I ever drank.

Totally. But I found something. It closed my mind to all the horror.

I didn't have all this weeping. I just had this numb deadness and this dizziness, haze. And that's all I needed not to be going off my mind like I was.

I was so reliant on it that I went into battle drunk. They knew it. A lot of them.

Protecting me, but somehow I just was drinking in the battle. Just had this drinking. To keep sane.

I'm going insane. At the horror of war. And one day, I was shocked.

I was walking along. And I heard a group of soldiers laughing as I was passing. Terrible when people laugh at you.

For any reason, but. I heard them saying, there he goes. The force is drunk.

And I felt so shamed. To be called the force is drunk. You have to be the worst.

I didn't hear anyone ever in the whole war be called the force is drunk until they said it of me. I was so shamed. One day we were marching.

It was heavy mist. It was bitterly cold. We could hardly see too far ahead.

And there was a few hundred of us. And the particular young fellows that were marching with me, some of them had been to school with me since boys. And they were laughing about things.

And I laughed at some stage with them. And as the one was laughing, this close friend of mine since a boy. Suddenly, there were sounds.

We could see no one. But they could see us somehow coming up that hill. And these shells just within seconds.

I just saw bodies flying into the air. Trees being ripped out of it, flying up into the air. And I just saw bodies smashed, crushed.

I stood on my closest friend's head. Ripped from his body. Suddenly, there was a silence.

I didn't know what was more smoke or mist. It was so heavy. But I just remember looking around and I just saw as the mist cleared here, bodies.

A few hundred. Who is this? Am I the only one? And through the mist, I saw another soldier. Looking at me and then he was sitting on this big tree trunk.

So I walked closer. The smoke was coming out of the end of this tree that had been blown up. And just sat there.

Always dead bodies as far as your eyes could see. Nothing but bodies as the mist was. I looked at him and I sat on this other tree.

And I just looked at him. Were we the only two of all these hundreds alive? He looked at me and I just sat there sobbing. Uncontrollably sobbing.

My closest friend, other school friends. As I looked at him, as I wept, he smiled at me. I was so confused.

I got up. I ran over to him in anger. I took my hand and I hit him.

I hit him so hard with my flat hand. And screamed as I smacked him on the face. You fool.

How can you smile? You fool. With all this you can smile? And I was weeping aloud. And he stood up.

And I got a shock. He just went going up. I had hit a very big man.

Whoa. I mean a big man. He just looked down at me now.

And I looked up at him. This man I hit so hard, screamed. And I thought, this is it.

What have I done? He looked down at me. And he said these words. I think you need a friend.

Right then, I also thought so. So I put my hand out. And he didn't put his hand.

He said, no, not me. I think you need my friend, Jesus. I think you need my friend, Jesus.

And you need him badly. Don't you? I just looked at him. He said to me, sit down.

We sat. He pulled out a Bible. A small Bible, but it was marked all over.

And he began to read to me from the Bible. About judgment. He read every single verse I quoted to you.

Here's a night. He read every single verse. Without exception of God's coming judgment to those who have not prepared to meet with God.

The moment you die, it's appointed unto men once to die. But after this, the judgment. And he read on.

I'd never heard that much. I heard about hell and blasphemous jokes. But I'd never heard anyone explaining from God's word about hell.

In any pulpit or any church or anywhere in my life. I trembled. He's listening to him.

And he went on. The judgments of God. And then he turned to me.

And he said, but listen to this. And he read about Jesus dying. And why he died.

And how God will forgive any man on earth. No matter what he does. Even a murderer.

The man hanging between next to Christ was a murderer. Who turned to Christ in one moment in his limited understanding of what was going on. And believed in Christ.

And Christ said, this day you will be with me in heaven. God forgave a murderer. As he hung on the cross.

And then he read about heaven. That the ways of sin is death. Not physical death.

Eternal death. In its context. But the gift of God.

That you don't work for. You just receive by grace through faith. You can't do anything for it.

Not of works. It's the gift of God. To him that worketh not.

But believeth on him that justifies the ungodly. His faith is counted to him for righteousness. God declares you righteous.

The moment you come with nothing but the blood of Jesus. Nothing in my hands I bring. Simply to the cross I cling.

And God will never be able to save you until you come with nothing. Not your good life. Or your good parents.

Or your religion. Or your money you give to the church. Nowhere.

Nothing but the blood of Jesus. And that moment God will say, this man read all these verses to me. And then he said how God had saved his soul.

And how he knew. That he knew. And had no fear.

No fear of death. He knew if he died. He was ready to meet with God.

The Holy Spirit bears witness with our spirits. That we are the children of God. Or God lies.

You don't live in fear. You know. 1 John 5.16 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself.

He that believeth not, God hath made him a liar. Because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record that God hath given to us.

Eternal life. And this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life.

And he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. These things have I written unto you. That believe on the name of the Son of God.

That you may know. That you have eternal life. And that you may believe on the name of the Son of God.

If you don't know that you have eternal life. You don't have it. We know.

We've passed from death unto life. You must know. God doesn't mock you if you come after he died for you.

And let you live in fear and doubt. His Holy Spirit bears witness with your spirit. That you are the child of God.

We have peace with God. Through Christ Jesus our Lord. Don't tell me that's fear and doubt.

Till you die. You know. This man knew.

Then he said to me. I know if I die where I'm going. Because I've prepared to meet with God, God's way.

I know and I don't have any fear of judgment. I know there's no condemnation to them which in Christ Jesus or the Bible lies. If there is, there's no condemnation.

He took the full condemnation and payment for my sins for eternity. That no judgment will come upon me. He paid for everything.

And I am saved from all judgment through grace. By faith in his death and his sufferings alone. And God promises me that.

He said I know if I die where I'm going. I don't fear death. I don't fear judgment after death.

I've prepared to meet with God, God's way. But you. Look at you.

Look at the torment. If you die without Christ. In seconds you will know torment worse than this.

You will know for the first time what the worst torment is. That a man could face. Because you're plunged into hell if you die without Christ.

You don't wait for the great white throne. If you die without Christ. You are plunged immediately into hell.

According to Christ. And he just gave verses. Your judgment is procured already if you die without Christ.

Believe me. You will go to worse suffering and torment than you're in now. Look at you.

You're in torment through this world. You dare not die without Christ. You're not ready to meet with God.

I am. You need to seek God now. That you can be ready in case you die.

As he spoke. Suddenly. A machine gun.

We could see nothing. They could see the handful left. About ten or so.

And as this machine gun. Was rattled off. They just fell.

Within a few seconds. The bullets were towards us. And about.

To kill us. When this man. As he saw these bullets came just.

Stood in front of me. Flung his arms around me. And bullets riddled down his back.

As he covered me. And he fell. In all his fullness.

I pushed him off me. And as he lay dying. He smiled again.

I'm ready to meet with Jesus. But you're not. So I gave my life for you.
So that you have time. Don't let me have died. For you for nothing.
I want you to come to me in heaven. As soon as you get there. Seek God now.
Seek God now. And as he was saying these words. Holding his Bible.
As an open page. He died. I got on my knees.
Beside him. Weeping. And I screamed.
On my knees. With all these hundreds of dead bodies in our hands. I was the only one left alive of the entire.
Squadron that went up. Not one other had lived. But me.
On my knees I screamed. As I wept. Jesus Christ.
Jesus Christ. I believe everything he said. Don't let him die for nothing.
He died to give me time. To find you. Save my soul from the hell.
He warned me of. From this Bible. Save my soul.
That I don't go to worse torment. Than this world has given me. Save me from hell.
That he didn't die for anything. For nothing. Oh I put my faith in nothing.
But the blood of Jesus. Nothing in my hands I bring. Like he said.
Simply to the cross I cling. Save me from hell. Save my soul.
My God. As I was weeping and crying in agony. A peace.
That passes all understanding. Swept over me. It was almost like a wave.
Of divine love just swept. And I couldn't cry out anymore. Save me.
All I did was say thank you. All I could do was say thank you. And joy welled up in my heart.
Within seconds. Of looking to nothing but the blood of Jesus. And the death of Christ.
All I knew was joy. Peace. No agony.
Flooding me and I was worshipping God. I got up. I took his papers and documents.
I took his Bible. I had a prayer as I knelt beside him. And then I walked.
Down the hill. Through bodies and bodies. But then leaving it all.
And another squadron was coming up. That had seen what was happening. And they were trying to come and help us.

And as they ran. The first man and then the whole group. Stopped.

And I told them there's no one left. Only me. To my knowledge there's no one that survived.

Only me. And they asked me about things. I said listen.

Before you go any further. I'm going to tell you what happened. And I told this man.

This first man that came to me. What that soldier had done. And how at his body I knelt.

And cried out to God to save me. And how this peace flooded my heart. I held the Bible and began to point to verses.

That as I opened were there. That he had read to me of judgment. And said everything I could.

And right then the first soul. That came near me. From when I was saved.

Came to Christ with me. He knelt. Weeping.

And he gave his life to Christ. Then I went to the next soldiers. And one after the other.

Through that day as I said all over. What happened. And how God saved me.

They just gave their lives to God. One after the other. It went on and on.

I was in the trenches. With my fellows. Not knowing that five minutes after they prayed.

They would be blown out of those trenches. And face eternity. But God knew.

And I led them to Christ. One after the others. They just wept as I shared.

And I heard of that Bible and got to know it. And they came to Christ. One after the other.

I was in another war now. A war between God and Satan. For the souls of men.

Suddenly the world was a battlefield. For the souls of men. And I was in that battle.

Under the front line of the battle for God. With a Bible. With a sword of the Spirit.

Which is the word of God. The only weapon I had now. That mattered to me.

I was in another war. A war for souls. And eventually as the days.

The weeks. The months went by. I walked past a good group of men.

And I heard them say these words aloud. The forces. Sown.

I never heard. Anyone being called that. For the six years of that war.

But I didn't walk insane. At what they had said. About me before.

There goes the forces drunk. Now it's there goes the forces sown. In the end.

When the war was over. I came back to Africa. I gave up everything I had.

I went into a seminar. I went out into preach. Later on.
He became the moderator. The head. Of the denomination.
For two terms. And was revered and revered. And used so mightily.
What was so wonderful about his ministry. That he didn't tell me that day. I found out afterwards.
From many preachers. As I began to preach across South Africa. He led multitudes to God.
In Africa. But the amazing thing is. How he led alcoholics and drunks.
To Christ. And this is the only man. I've ever heard this about.
Not one person. He ever led to Christ. Ever backslid.
All the alcoholics. That were dragged by people. Across the country to come and sit with him.
And let him speak. Including a lot of drug addicts. Same thing.
He preached in every one he knelt with. After he said the scriptures. That I said with you tonight.
Not one has ever known. To have gone back to alcohol. God was so in him.
He's been dead a long time now. I suppose I'm the only preacher. That actually preaches about him like this anymore.
He been dead. Yet speaketh. The Bible says.
If you really. Walked with God. Your death doesn't stop the fruit.
Of what you were for God. He been dead. God says.
In the Bible of certainty. Yet speaketh. Because he was a soul winner.
He didn't just stand up. His own soul saved. And say that's it.
He became known as the forces soul winner. And then as one of the greatest soul winners. In the history of Africa.
That no one known to have been led to God. By his fervency. And his prayers and his faith.
Ever went back to their drinks. Or sin. That is known now.
There's a verse. In the Bible you all can quote. I hope.
2 Corinthians 5 17. Therefore if. That's a very important word.
If any man. Be in Christ. He is.
He's a new creature. Old things are. Passed away.
Behold all things. Are become new. You should have seen my daddy.

A slave to alcohol. One moment. Stood.
He never touched another drink. And he died. Though he had been enslaved.
And shamed us and shamed himself. For 26 years of shame and sorrow. One prayer.
If any man. Be in Christ. He is a new creature.
God says. Old things are passed away. Behold look God says.
To everyone that knows you. And he will or you're not saved. Beginning with your family.
And into your enemies. Look behold. All things.
Are become new. God says. If you say.
And no one will argue. God says it to their hearts. If any man be in Christ.
In this building in this world. He is this happened. When did it happen to you.
He is a new creature. Old things are passed away. Behold all things are become new.
God says. But it doesn't stop there. And all things are of God.
The next verse says. All things are of God. Who has reconciled us to himself.
You see the moment you reconciled. In the same verse. You're given the ministry of reconciliation.
If you reconcile. Who has reconciled us to himself by Christ Jesus. And has given to us.
The ministry of reconciliation. Once you reconcile to God. You have a responsibility to every soul.
God expects you to witness to. You become a soul winner. If your soul is one.
Or something is radically wrong. With your salvation. All things are of God.
Who has reconciled us to himself by Christ Jesus. And has given to us. The ministry of reconciliation.
To wit that God was in Christ. Reconciling the world unto himself. Not imputing their trespasses unto them.
And has committed unto us the word. Of reconciliation. You see the moment you say.
This isn't just the word of God. This is the word of reconciliation. This is the word.
This is the tool book. This is the weapon. That you study.
To show yourself approved unto God. A workman that needed not to be ashamed. Rightly deriding the third of truth.
Like that man. Who gave his life. But first gave life through this book.
He knew what to use. To bring a soul to God. He was a soul winner you see.
He was a soul winner. To wit that God was in Christ. Reconciling the world unto himself.

Not imputing their trespasses unto them. And has committed unto us. The word.

Of reconciliation. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ. If you're saved.

This is what you are. Oh I doubt you're saved. I doubt you're saved.

Now then we are ambassadors. For Christ. As though God.

Did beseech you by us. We pray you in Christ's stead. Be ye reconciled to God.

As though God himself was crying through us. As though God did beseech you by us. We pray you in Christ's stead.

In the place of Christ. Be ye reconciled to God. For he hath made him to be sinful.

Ushering you no sin. That we might be made the righteousness of God in him. Are you a soul winner? I'm not asking if you're saved.

Since you were reconciled to God. Have you got the ministry of reconciliation. Like that man.

Like that man who got up and won the first soul he found. After he was saved and brought into Christ. He was so saved.

Does that matter to you? Are you a soul winner? The fruit of the righteous. When you're right with God there's fruit. What is it? He's a tree of life God says to this world.

Are you a tree of life? In this world? Is that what people know? People come to eternal life through you? He that winneth souls. The fruit of the righteous. He's wise.

This is wisdom. Because there's nothing you can do more noble or more vital in life. Once you're saved.

Than to bring others to the knowledge you and I have been parted with. And there's nothing more forceful than experience through knowledge. Let me ask you all something.

If you face death right now. Where would you be? Unless God lied. Where would you be? Unless God is a liar.

Where would you be? Unless the Bible is myth. Where would you be? If you face death right now. Where would you be? And another question.

You who say you're saved. When did you say those words? The way I've said it to you tonight. There is no soul on earth matter.

That puts some question mark on everything about you. Doesn't it? Can we stand please? Father take this message. And to everyone who had the integrity before a holy God who died for them.

And who will judge them one day. But to everyone in this building who has that one iota of true integrity themselves. And self respect.

Because God created them and died for them. That they don't be their worst enemy. And say no.

And go to hell. And judgment. Father let this message bring amazing fruit in their lives.

Even if they lose every friend they've got on earth. If they find Christ as their friend. They'll find happiness for the first time in life and truth.

And the gift of eternal life. Please help no one unsaved in this building. To be able to cast this message aside.

No matter what it costs. But to find Jesus as their savior soon. And swiftly.

And to those of us who say we're saved. Forgive us God. The souls around us, past us, they may as well be dirt.

We don't even pray for them. Even though Christ died for them also. Forgive us.

Help us God. Help us. Go out there.

And stagger the powers of hell by witnessing like that man. And become known not as a saved person but as a soul. In Jesus Christ's name.

Amen. There's no appeal. Your answer to God you've said already.

And my begging you isn't going to help a thing. If you said no already. Nothing God can do will change you.

No. The devil's watching you. God's watching you and everyone on earth that knows you is watching you.

You want to stagger the Satan and your friends and your enemies. And glorify God? You seek God with your soul to be saved. Even if you're alone.

Even if every soul around you lies dead and you're alone. But you heard truth. All you need.

No one else. It's up to you. But then tell the world.

From the first soul that comes near you. Till the day you die. The last one that's watching you die.

Tell them about Jesus. For all I can say is. If you say you're saved.

Andrew Murray says and you're not a soul winner. That's the most obnoxious thing that could ever be said on this earth. By a man.

To claim he's saved. And not be a soul winner. Is the most obnoxious statement that could ever be made.

On God's earth. One of the greatest preachers in history. Andrew Murray said.

We're not going to sing. We're not going to have another appeal. But we are having another meeting tomorrow night.

And I'd like to carry on the sermon there tomorrow night. Please ask someone to come with you. Please pray.

That God brings people. Not just people who will laugh. And close their heart.

But that God brings people. Who he died for. And suffered for in a way you will never complain.

But in God the Father's eyes. He paid fully every torment you would have faced. For eternity.

Somehow God turns dead on Christ for every man. Pray that people will come with an open heart to that God. Otherwise God keep them away.

So there's two meetings left. 6.30 tomorrow. And a whole day to try and win souls.

Even if it's just asking and begging them to come. Brother. It's your group.

Can I dismiss them? No, Simeon. Be careful what you say now. Be careful.

Trust me. Be careful what you do with this message. If I preached now and took two hours.

I'd tell you how many people. Many teenagers walked from me and within minutes were dead. Not because I spoke to them.

God knew what was about to happen. I made sure somebody spoke to them. Be careful what you do with this message.

In case you think you've got forever to laugh at God. We are dismissed. God bless you.

And thank you from my heart that you came tonight. Thank you.
