Transcript

...had one true revival, no matter what anyone says, and that was the revival under Andrew Murray. His father prayed for 20-something years through the night once a week for God to come to South Africa, but he didn't see it until a book was put into his hand, written by Charles Finney, who gave his lectures on revival, his stepping stones, and his account of the revivals from Edwards down right through to his ministry and the prayer revival. He gave it at the end of his life.

And then God spread that book across the world, which is responsible for most of the world's major revivals, was that book being read by one individual or by others.
